5th Sunday of Lent

10:00 am

St. Peter's Anglican Church,
903-75th Ave. S.W., Calgary, AB. 403-252-0393

Today is the fifth Sunday of Lent, the traditional season of repentance that precedes Easter. In the early church, this was a time for new believers to prepare for baptism, which took place during the Easter Vigil service. During Lent, the hangings are purple, and greenery replaces the flowers at the Altar. The service is reordered, with the penitential rite beginning the service rather than following the prayers. We do not use the Gloria or say "alleluia" during this season. Instead, we will sing the Kyrie (Lord have mercy), Sanctus (Holy Holy) and the Agnus Dei (Lamb of God), using the traditional music by Merbecke. Our sermons during Lent and the Easter season will follow the journey of St. Peter, after whom our congregation is named.

Our service today is being recorded as a gift for Bishop Gary Woolsey, priest at St Peter's from August 1991 to May, 2002, who is currently in Hospice. Our hymns today are among his favourites, and we will be offering special prayers on his behalf. We welcome family members and friends who are joining us today as we honour Bishop Gary's ministry and friendship.

THE GATHERING

Call to Silence

As today's service begins, a gong will sound, calling us to stillness before God. As its sounds fade away, we stand to sing our processional hymn.

Processional Hymn # 354 Come Thou Font of Every Blessing

Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

And also with you.

The Penitential Rite

The sacrifice of God is a broken spirit: a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise. Psalm 51.18

If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 John 1.8, 9

Dear friends in Christ, as we prepare to worship almighty God, let us with penitent and obedient hearts confess our sins,
that we may obtain forgiveness by his infinite goodness and mercy.

Silence is kept.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in eternal life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Kyrie Eleison (# 678)

Lord, have mercy upon us. Christ, have mercy upon us. Lord, have mercy upon us.

Collect

Most merciful God, by the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ, you created humanity anew. May the power of his victorious cross transform those who turn in faith to him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

"Magic Penny"

Love is something if you give it away, give it away, give it away

Love is something if you give it away, you end up having more!

It's just like a magic penny, hold it tight and you won't have any lend it, spend it and you'll have so many they'll roll all over the floor!

Love is something if you give it away, give it away, give it away

Love is something if you give it away, you end up having more!

The children now leave for Spirit Zone

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

New Testament Reading: Philippians 3:4b-14 Doug Kyle

I, too, have reason for confidence in the flesh. If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless. Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on towards the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

Psalm 126, page 885

The Gospel Reading: Matthew 26:31-35

Then Jesus said to them, 'You will all become deserters because of me this night; for it is written, "I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered."'

But after I am raised up, I will go ahead of you to Galilee.’ Peter said to him, ‘Though all become deserters because of you, I will never desert you.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Truly I tell you, this very night, before the cock crows, you will deny me three times.’ Peter said to him, ‘Even though I must die with you, I will not deny you.’ And so said all the disciples.

Prayer after Communion

All your works praise you, O Lord.
And your faithful servants bless you.

Gracious God
we thank you for feeding us with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
May we, who share his body,
live his risen life;
we, who drink his cup,
bring life to others;
we, whom the Spirit lights,
give light to the world.
Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us,
so that we and all your children shall be free,
and the whole earth live to praise your name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.
