THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Old Testament Reading: Proverbs 8:1-4,22-31

Barbara Moore

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: "To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth—when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.”

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 8

New Testament Letters: Romans 5:1–5

Margaret Cull

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn: #312 Sing a New Song unto the Lord

Gospel: John 16:12–15

Archdeacon Barry Foster

Reader: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

People: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ!

Jesus said, “I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.”

Reader: The Gospel of Christ

Response: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!

The Continuing Education and Peer Supervision Groups, for the group that was commissioned as Stephen Ministers in 2009, will continue meeting through June. Their support groups will meet to support their Care Givers as the need arises through the summer months. Everyone has learned many new skills in Care Giving and they look forward to being caring, supportive Stephen Ministers to their Care Receivers, whom they visit on a weekly basis.
