Celebrant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

All And also with you.

Celebrant Almighty God,
All To you all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from you no secrets are hidden.
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit,
that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Creator of the fruitful earth (Collect of the Day)
you have made us stewards of all things.
Give us grateful hearts for all your goodness,

may with us give thanks for the riches of your creation.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Old Testament Reading: Jeremiah 29:1,4-7

These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

New Testament Letters: 2 Timothy 2:8-15

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful—for he cannot deny himself. Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

People: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ!

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

50th Anniversary Update

Thank you to the many people who attended the dinner and Sunday service and enjoyed the opening of the 10 year "Time Capsule". Sincere thanks to Helen for her participation in both the Saturday evening and Sunday service.

We had approximately 181 at the dinner. Gerry Skeet gave a brief presentation on his time in the Senior choir and the life and time of (Auntie) May Bamford; Pam Grigg gave a historical overview of the choir and how there were young people on a waiting list to join the junior choir. Dave Cormack gave a sketch of the 41 year history of St. Peter's Players. The surprise speaker, Bishop Barry Curtis, gave a very encouraging and challenging address and fondly remembered his association with St. Peter's over the years he was Bishop. The evening ended with Jim Denis providing a musical history of the past 50 years, ending the evening with a sing song.

A big thank you to all the visiting clergy who took time out of their schedules to join us Saturday at the dinner and Sunday at the service. I am informed there were over 200 at the Sunday service. Bishop Curtis gave the homily on Sunday and set out the challenges for St. Peter's in the coming years. Both his addresses challenged us and offered us insightful wisdom.

On Saturday everyone was given a CD of the April 25 Morning Prayer service. The file is an MP3 file and can be played on a computer or a CD player. We are planning an audio version of the April 25th service. We will also be making a disc of the October 3 service (MP3 and audio). Please call Sheila Leigh at 403-281-1376 for discs.

Celebration of New Ministry

Sisters and brothers, as disciples of Christ Jesus, each one of us is called to participate in the mission of God in the world. In this parish, Aaron and Christine have been called to serve God and God's church in particular ministries among you. As ministers among you, they are called to serve this community and to reach beyond it to share God's love.

Christine and Aaron, will you seek to serve Christ through your ministry at St. Peter's parish – challenging, encouraging, teaching and above all, loving all you meet?

I will, with God's help.

Aaron and Christine, will you seek to proclaim the Gospel in word and example to all persons, striving particularly to reach beyond the physical and communal boundaries of St. Peter's parish?

I will with God's help.

Christine and Aaron, will you seek to stretch your faith and that of this parish through study, prayer and worship to help bridge the gap between church and world, between old and young and between who we are and who we are called to be?

I will, with God's help.

May the congregation please stand....

Will you, the members of St. Peter's parish, uphold Aaron and Christine and the ministries they undertake with participation, prayer and patience?

We will, with God's help.
